Spending the Family Income is Almost as Important as Earning It

It is what you get for your money that counts. If you buy cheap, shoddy clothes that wear badly, it is money wasted. Seal-skin coats are extravagances, but there is a happy medium which gives you good service and value for your money. Food costs you more than clothing. It pays to buy the right kind of groceries. It also pays to select them—that's why we have a selected stock of good pure goods of best value.
